

PHARMACOGNOSY

The Department of Pharmacognosy has a distinctive role in the essential field of drug research and carries out studies on the physical, chemical, biochemical and biological properties of drugs and drug substances of natural origin. We focus on to be distinctive department locally, nationally & internationally, as a part of a high-level faculty. We offer high-quality education to cultivate and prepare outstanding skilled pharmacists. We aim to reach a leading position in research in the field of natural products. The Department of Pharmacognosy is completely dedicated to provide excellence in education and research in the disciplines of Pharmacognosy & natural products chemistry to define the direction & scope of herbal drug therapy through continuous & innovative research.

STAFF PROFILE

Name of the Staff : Prof. Vandana Prashant Aher

Qualification : M.Pharm

Department : Pharmacognosy

Teaching Experience : 10 years

Administrative Experience : I/C Vice principal 2 years, I/C Principal 1 year, I/C HOD 5 years

Number of Research Publications :02